

I, the radio stations I have broadcast my shows on and hundreds of listeners oppose reopening docket 04-151. Big business media currently has far too much of the public air waves. Community radio is very important, especially in times of disaster or increased threat levels.